MAHEEN FAYYAZ

Web Designer

I'm an IT and technology student at Saylani with hands-on experience in MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js (MERN Stack), enabling me to build full-stack web applications with responsive and dynamic user interfaces. Alongside web development, I also have expertise in digital marketing and WordPress, giving me a well-rounded edge in building, optimizing, and scaling websites for both performance and user reach..
